Free Events Over the Summer

- June 1-3: Capitol Hill Peoples Fair | Civic Center Park

The Capitol Hill People's Fair is one of Colorado's longest-running outdoor festivals. Special features include a wine pavilion, jazz stage, "Fine Art Avenue," and food from local restaurants. It's truly an event for the people!

- June 2-3: Denver Chalk Art Festival | Larimer Square

Every Spring, the sidewalks around Larimer Square come to life during the annual Denver Chalk Festival, as more than 200 professional, amateur, and student chalk artists turn concrete into canvas.

- July 6-8: Cherry Creek Arts Festival | Cherry Creek North

This free, outdoor extravaganza — the city's signature cultural celebration of the visual, performing and culinary arts — gives more than 350,000 annual visitors the chance to meet and talk with international visual artists, enjoy a wide range of family-friendly fun, and sample fine cuisine. At the Cherry Creek Arts Festival, experience Artivity Avenue, a full block of interactive activities perfect for youngsters. Visit the Cultural Pavilion where music, dance, and theater from around the globe will be presented. Culinary Avenue features tasty treats and live cooking demonstrations from some of Denver's most popular eateries.

- July 13-15: Colorado Black Arts Festival | City park

This family-friendly event showcases the creative talents of local, regional and national African Americans in art and culture. The three-day Colorado Black Arts Festival also features three performing stages filled with dance, jazz, blues, soul, reggae, gospel, traditional African drum and dance.

- All Summer Long: Outdoor movies in the Park | Denver City Parks
- Sunday evenings in June and July: City Park Jazz | City Park

Every Sunday night in June and July and the first Sunday in August, the City Park Bandstand and Pavilion turns into a swinging, open-air jazz club as music lovers of all ages congregate for the free City Park Jazz.
