To commemorate Dr. Tripp's time at Daniels and honor his impact on students, we are preparing a memory book. This book will be presented to him in May. We need your help to make this possible!

Please send us anything you would like to include in the book such as personal notes, memories, photos, pieces of wisdom, or a favorite quote.

Send your favorite Dr. Tripp memory to Jacquelyn.Villa@du.edu by May 6.

Looking for International Experience?

University of Denver: 9/20, 10/4, 10/25, and 11/8

London: 12/2 - 12/6

Join Dr. Ryan Casey's ACTG 3701/4701: International Accounting Issues in London course offered next fall quarter. The class is designed for students to study international accounting from both academic and practical perspectives. The course will consist of two components:

1. a set of pre-departure classes designed to provide the student with knowledge of issues experienced in a global economy and;
2. a five-day international travel experience which includes experiential learning exercises, group discussions and presentations, and approximately ten visits to international companies and CPA firms.

There will be a course fee that will cover lodging, ground transportation, and other course related expenses. The course fee will be approximately $2,400. For more information or to inquire about registration, contact Dr. Ryan Casey at ryan.casey@du.edu.

The Newman Center

The Voices of Experience speaker series at the Daniels College of Business brings CEOs and significant leaders into our community to share the lessons learned from their triumphs, mistakes and decisions as they navigated through their leadership careers. Join us to hear experienced top-level leaders share first-hand stories of motivation, loyalty, values-based leadership, turnaround strategies and more.

With Dean Brent Chrite as the host and moderator for this event, the two will discuss Abdulfattah's experience growing up in the United Arab Emirates, his career journey, focus on diversity within his teams and his perspective on the importance of internationalization. Other topics will include:

- Governance issues and ethics in the financial sector
- Geopolitical challenges and their economic impact
- Emerging markets and the evolution of trade between China, India, and the Middle East
