

ACCOUNTING STUDENT NEWSLETTER

SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTANCY | DANIELS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Spring is here!

Stop by Marcus Commons today from 9-11am for a free Beta Alpha Psi headshot. We'll be set up just outside the west doors of the Commons (by the picnic tables outside). Please wear business professional from the waist-up and bring your DU ID card with you.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING OPT

There are currently delays in processing Optional Practical Training (OPT) nationwide. The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is supposed to process OPT applications within 90 days, but in many cases it is taking 120+ days to fully process. With the longer processing time, it is essential that any students completing your degree in spring quarter apply for OPT as soon as possible. More information regarding OPT is available on the ISSS website here. If you have questions, please contact ISSS at iss@du.edu or make an appointment for an advising session at <http://www.du.edu/iss/advicing.html>.

AMERICAN IDIOM OF THE MONTH

"Pass the buck"

Meaning:

To shift the blame

Origin:

"Pass the buck" comes from 19th century poker when a knife with a buckhorn handle was passed to the next dealer when it was their turn to deal.

Because players often blame a bad deal for losing a hand of poker, the term "pass the buck" came to mean "pass the blame" and is now widely used to mean a shift of blame.

Example:

Instead of taking responsibility for his late paper, Tommy passed the buck to his roommate John, saying his loud music made it impossible for him to complete it on time.
