Denver Chalk Art Festival

June 6-7, Larimer Square

A little bit of Italy comes to the Mile High City this summer, thanks to the annual Denver Chalk Art Festival. The art you'll encounter during the festival isn't in galleries -- it's on the pavement! The event features more than 150 professional and amateur artists who will spend hours on their hands and knees over the course of two days transforming Larimer Square into a bright and colorful street museum using vivid pastel chalks. Learn more here.

Denver Flea

June 27-28, Parking Garage at 27th and Blake

Head downtown for Denver's innovative take on the flea market. Built on a unique retail experience with a fun and energetic atmosphere, the Summer Flea is a great place to find good vintage items and, if you RSVP, you get a free New Belgium beer! Check it out today.

Farmers' Markets

There are TONS of wonderful farmers' markets around the Denver area that are open throughout the summer. These markets are a wonderful place to get farm-fresh produce, yummy snacks and prepared meals to make summer cooking easy, healthy and fresh. Check out this list of Denver farmers' markets and get yourself some delicious food this summer!

AMERICAN IDIOM OF THE MONTH

"Red tape" or "Cut through the red tape"

Meaning:

Excessive regulations, rules or formalities, especially in business

Origin:

The term "red tape" comes from the early 18th century when red tape was used to bind official documents and secure their contents, as per rules and regulations.

Example:

Natalia thought about moving to another apartment building, but there was so much red tape involved in getting her current place rented that she decided to stay.
