Conference Director:

Accounting Scholars Development Program, July 1- August 4, 2011, June 24-28, 2012 and July 7-11, 2013. Launched a summer community college outreach program with sponsorship by the AICPA Foundation, Deloitte, E&Y, KPMG, PwC, Grant Thornton and the Colorado Society of CPAs that brings top minority students from a pool of national applicants to the University of Denver to learn about accounting careers and the process of transferring to a four-year institution. Invited Howard University to serve as a second site starting in 2013 to accommodate the increasing number of qualified applicants.

Accounting Development Program, June 6-11, 2010, FIU. Conceived, developed, secured funding and assured success of the PricewaterhouseCoopers / FICPA Accounting Development Program. This first-in-the-nation summer residency outreach program for community college students interested in transferring to a four-year institution to study accounting drew over sixty students from twelve states to apply for the thirty-five positions.

Minority Summer Residency Program, 2009 and 2010, FIU. Launched a Minority Summer Residency Program and an Accounting Careers and Money Program day camp to encourage diverse high school rising seniors to pursue accounting education.

Vice President – Education of Florida Institute of CPAs, 2009-2010 responsible for oversight of ten annual conferences.
